I. CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

To our first years, a warm welcome to Bangalore School of Design! And to our second and third years, welcome back!

This student handbook is an important document, which will provide you with all the necessary information about studying at BSD. I hope you will take the time to go through this information to find out what questions are answered in this handbook.

We at BSD want to give you the best chance to achieve your personal goals, whether they are to progress to a higher level of study or to get a job. Whatever you want to do, we want you to have the best possible support, advice and guidance. I hope you are expecting great joy in the weeks and months ahead. College should be lots of fun. At the same time, I hope you are expecting repeated challenges.

One of our guiding principles at BSD is to build a safe space for mutual learning. As designers we are always pushing boundaries, exploring different things and learning something new each day. Explore all the opportunities available and then create some of your own. Enjoy all your classes and work hard. Push yourselves and each other to go beyond ordinary. Ask questions of everyone and give your best ideas to those who ask your opinion.

I hope you will get fully involved in all the activities and workshops that will be on offer through this academic year. When starting at college there is much that is strange and sometimes difficult to get used to. We want everyone in the college to be and feel safe. If you have any worries or concerns contact your teachers or the admission counselor, who will help you access the support you need.

We are happy to have you at BSD and look forward to a rewarding academic year. I wish you well and hope you enjoy your time at BSD.

DESIGN PROJECTS

At BSD we believe that students need to implement what they learn as practical knowledge. Each semester we introduce a hypothetical project which they design, following a design process while interacting with our experienced faculty. We culminate this journey with an external jury, where working professionals from the field give their valuable input individually to the students. The students will be graded progressively throughout the semester and by the external jurors. Students who clear the Design Project and maintain the minimum required attendance percentage will be eligible to receive the Design Studio Certificate.

BEYOND CURRICULUM EVENTS

BSD aims at providing a well-rounded education to our students. As part of our beyond curriculum initiative, we conduct regular workshops, guest lectures, educational visits, site visits and more. These activities are a compulsory part of the design student's journey at BSD. All UG students are expected to attend all the organized activities and the Diploma students can register for the activities that are relevant to their course or the ones they are interested in. The CC.EC marking (50 internal marks) for BNU will be based on your participation and performance in the same.

The students elect their president, vice president, secretary and treasurer. The purpose of the student council is to be the link between the faculty, administration & management and the students. The council also undertakes student activities that are conducted.

BSD also encourages students to form clubs of both academic and non-academic interest. Any new club to be formed needs to be approved by the management. Students can submit a request via a letter or an email, routed through the student body to the head of operations.

ACTIVITIES ON CAMPUS

At BSD we believe that going beyond curriculum gives our students a multi-faceted design education. Along with the student council, we conduct various activities on campus.

Studio BSD – This is a venture set up by the college for the students of BSD. The students get to work on real time projects and experience the work culture before they step into the professional world. The students can sign up for this experience as a co-curricular activity. Interested students may get in touch with the student council or the academic team at BSD.

Mozaic – The annually conducted design fest at BSD invites various renowned names in the design fraternity to share their knowledge and also conducts various design challenges for colleges across Bangalore to participate in. Each year 'MOZAIC' proposes a different theme, around which all the activities and events are built. Students of BSD actively take part in the organization of the design fest.

Workshops – Weekly workshops are organized at BSD as part of the curriculum to expose the students to various different aspects and options design opens them up to. These workshops may include guest lectures, demonstration, hands-on workshops and other activities that help students develop an overall personality.

Spectrum Week – A week dedicated to celebrating extra-curricular is organized by the student council every odd semester. Students get to explore different themes, cultures and ethnicities through their wardrobe, studios and activities.
